

Christina Keller Client Services and Public Relations

Christina grew up in Colorado, and for more than 10 years, she has been a positive, uplifting presence for both our team and our clients. Her warmth, reliability, and genuine care have made her an essential part of our company culture.

Christina has a remarkable ability to create a better world for the people she knows and surrounds herself with. Her compassion, encouragement, and steady optimism inspire others to stay strong, stay hopeful, and keep moving forward. She is deeply passionate about helping people overcome their own challenges and discover the strength they may not realize they have.

Christina's presence doesn't just support those around her; it elevates them.
