

Jean Burns Administrative Assistant

Jean has called Colorado home since 1979, when she moved from her hometown of Charleston, South Carolina, to build a life with her family. Jean brings exceptional attention to detail and a genuine commitment to client care, a strength she has demonstrated for more than 10 years. Her smile, laughter, kind heart, and genuine care for our clients have made her an essential part of our company culture.

Outside of work, Jean cherishes time with her family and her pets, who bring endless joy to her life. Her warmth, dedication, and decades of experience make her a trusted and uplifting presence for both colleagues and clients.
